Philadelphian Puts New Yorker Out of Southampton Tennis Tourney.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., August 24 .-Progress in the invitation tennia tournament at the Meadow Club yesterday was marked by the retirement of one of the first ten ranking men, Theodore Roosevelt Pell being defeated by Joseph J. Armstrong of Philadelphia in a three-set encounter, the score of which was 5-7, 6-2, 6-2. This comes as near tends an upset as anything the tournament has produced up to date, but even this reversal created little surprise. Armstrong has been playing a strong game, signalizing his appearance at Longwood by defeating Ichiya Kumagae and Clarence J. Griffin, while Pell has been unable this season to bring his game to the heights which it occupied last year when he was placed fifth in the national ranking.

In the other matches the favorites came through without having serious difficulty. Eight men are now left in the singles competition. The upper half of the draw shows the names of Richerd Norris Williams, 2d; Watson M. Washburn, Richard Hafte and Joseph J. Armstrong. In the lower half there are Roland Roberts, Harry S. Parker, Francis T. Hunter and William J. Clothier. With the exception of the Armstrong and Roberts victories all of the matches went in straight sets. of the first ten ranking men, Theodore
